LB 132, 183

on page 2606 of the Legislative Journal.) Return to your desks. The first bill on Final Reading will be LB 132, which has come down from agenda number 9 earlier. LB 132, proceeding then to LB 183 and so forth. LB 340 came down from motions from bills to be returned. That's plugged in between LB 335 and LB 354. Members take your seats for Final Reading. Proceed, Mr. Clerk, LB 132.

CLERK: (Read LB 132 on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER BARRETT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 132 become law? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: (Record vote read as found on page 2607 of the Legislative Journal.) 47 ayes, 0 nays, 2 present...2 excused not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: LB 132 passes. LB 183.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a motion on the desk. Senator Hefner would move to return LB 183 to Select File for a specific amendment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator...it is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have an amendment from Senator Lamb to the bill.

SPEAKER BARRETT: It is withdrawn.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Dierks would move to bracket the bill until January 10, 1990.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Dierks, please.

SENATOR DIERKS: Mr. Speaker and members of the body, I will tell you at the outset that I intend to withdraw this bracket motion. I just needed the opportunity to say a few words. And when I started out with this, I did it...someone the other day mentioned something about righteous anger. I suspect maybe righteous indignation was more the right term. I want people to understand that I have opposed this bill, not because I oppose choice, because I think choice is all right. The reason that I
